Ralph Bakshi did the animation for the "Harlem Shuffle."

The first single from the Rolling Stones new LP "Dirty Work" is scheduled to hit movie screens as a music zap March 21st. The "Halem Shuffle," directed by Ralph Bakshi of "Fritz the Cat" and "Lord of the Rings" animated movie-fame, blends zany cartoon images with performance footage of the Stones. Negative cutting and video time code and conversion was performed by Stan Sztaba of World Cinevision.

The "Harlem Shuffle" Music Zap will be distributed to selected markets prior to such films as "Pretty in Pink," "Wise Guys" and "The Money Pit."
